

‘The Annual Quality Assurance Report (AQAR) of the IQAC

All NAAC accredited institutions will submit an annual self-reviewed progress report to NAAC, through its IQAC. The report is to detail the tangible results achieved in key areas, specifically identified by the institutional IQAC at the beginning of the academic year. The AQAR will detail the results of the perspective plan worked out by the IQAC. (Note: The AQAR period would be the Academic Year. For example, July 1, 2012 to June 30, 2013)

2.12 How does IQAC Contribute/Monitor/Evaluate the Teaching & Learning processes :

1. The IQAC prepares Curricular, cocurricular and extracurricular activities calendar at the beginning of the semester by considering data obtained on past performance and present need through feedback mechanism.

(Past performance includes evaluatory reports of the previous semester/year related to teaching learning and various types of feedbacks on learning outcome. Present needs of the students are identified through feedback mechanism and conventional student's evaluation by the teacher. The IQAC during the meetings communicates these feedbacks with the concerned member/section of the college. It tries to identify viable follow up steps. It also motivates them by demanding and fulfilling their requirements to submit a viable plan which can be included in the calendar to execute the follow up steps.)

2. The monitoring of quality of the teaching learning process as planned at the onset of the year is carried out by the cocoordinator of IQAC for the respective departments.

3. Self-appraisal report of teachers, academic audit and evaluation report of the departments are collected at the end of the year.
